

Performance Commentary FOURTH QUARTER 2011

For the fourth quarter of 2011, the Fund's Class A shares returned 2.86% (without load), underperforming the MSCI EAFE Index return of 3.38%.

The Fund's relative performance benefited the most from its stock selection in the telecommunications services sector. The Fund's relative performance was hurt by its stock selection in the materials and industrials sectors, and its underweight to the energy sector.

The following portfolio holdings helped the Fund's relative performance the most:

- Atlas Copco, a Swedish developer and manufacturer of compressors, construction equipment and tools, reported solid third quarter results with record margins.
- Fred Olsen Energy, of Norway, announced third quarter results ahead of expectations helped by higher activity in the engineering segment.
- Sanofi, a French pharmaceutical company, whose stock rose more than 11%.

The following portfolio holdings hurt the Fund's relative performance the most:

- KBC Groep, a Belgian banking and insurance group, reported third quarter results below forecasts due to concerns relating to the Bank's exposure to Ireland and its capital position and investment portfolio.
- OneSteel, of Australia, whose shares fell more than 40% due to iron ore price volatility, recent expensive acquisitions and decreased demand for steel.
- Asahi Glass, whose stock fell more than 12%.

As of 12/31/11, these companies represented the following percentages of the Fund's portfolio: Atlas Copco (1.95%), Fred Olsen Energy (1.54%), Sanofi (2.92%), KBC Groep (0.56%), OneSteel (0.77%), Asahi Glass (0.49%). The composition of the Fund's portfolio is subject to change.
